

Statement From Louis Dreyfus Company Regarding Its Activities in Russia

April 3, 2023 - Louis Dreyfus Company (LDC) will cease grain exports from Russia from July 1, 2023, as grain export challenges continue to increase in the country, and is also assessing options for the transfer to new owners of its existing Russian business and grain assets.

LDC will continue to run its operations in Russia until the process is complete, in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

The company will release further information when and if appropriate.
